

FISH MONITORING INTRO & WORKSHOP

ORCA's One Health program is focused on studying the transfer of toxins and toxicants from the Indian River Lagoon to humans and animals. One way we do this is by testing fish from the lagoon and surrounding waterways. Volunteers assist in collecting fish, as well as processing and analyzing samples in the laboratory.

At this workshop, volunteers will learn about the project and be trained to dissect and process fish for lab analysis.

July 31

10:00AM-12:00PM

Environmental Studies Center
2900 NE Indian River Dr, Jensen Beach

Limited
Spots

No
Cost

Scan to Register

For more information contact Missy Weiss at mweiss@TeamORCA.org or call 772-562-9052.

Team
ORCA
CITIZEN SCIENCE

Workshop sponsored by:

Impact100 MARTIN

ORCA, the Ocean Research & Conservation Association, is a nonprofit corporation dedicated to the protection and restoration of aquatic ecosystems and the species they sustain through the development of innovative technologies, science-based conservation action and community education and outreach.